Report on IEEE Day Celebrations 02/10/2018

The IEEE student branch of Malaviya National Institute of Technology celebrated IEEE day on 2nd October, 2018 at the college premises. The theme of IEEE celebrations is "Leveraging technology for better tomorrow". IEEE MNIT, JAIPUR Student Branch is celebrating the IEEE day to raise the awareness about IEEE. The day commemorates the anniversary of the meeting in Philadelphia in 1884 when members of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, one of IEEE's predecessor societies, gathered for the first time to share technical ideas. This day is celebrated worldwide every year to collaborate on ideas that leverage technology for a better tomorrow. These celebrations create awareness among the student members as well as give them an opportunity to interact with experts and professionals.

The program started with a welcome address by Kurra Chaithanya Vice Chair IEEE student Branch MNIT onto the stage. Then Dr. Ashish Kumar Ghunawat Faculty counsellor, IEEE Student Branch MNIT, was welcomed on to the stage with a memento. Then the Vice Chair gave a brief introduction about IEEE and the activities conducted by the student branch over the last few years. A technical quiz session lasting about 20 minutes was conducted for the audience immediately after the introduction. Then the vice chair introduced the chief guest Prof. Rajesh Kumar, IEEE senior member and requested Dr. Ashish Kumar Ghunawat to welcome the chief guest by presenting a bouquet. Prof. Rajesh Kumar gave an enthralling talk on the topic "Digital Transformation" for an hour. Then the top three winners of the IEEE Idea Contest were given prizes by Prof. Rajesh Kumar followed by prize distribution to the top two quiz winners by Dr. Ashish Kumar Ghunawat. The celebrations were concluded after the vote of thanks by Kurra Chaithanya. Immediately all the audience were requested to gather on the backside of the Prabha Bhavan for the IEEE formation. This formation was photographed and then all the audience were provided with refreshments.
