The IEEE Student Branch organized a membership drive from October 19-October 26, 2016 wherein the student membership application fee was waived off by 50% with kind approval from the institute. The drive resulted in 83 applications that are currently being reimbursed 50% of their respective application fee.